

Do you realize how seriously this act will affect businesses and our national economy? Many customers rely on faxed information for their own operations. Sales will be lost because of the constraints of getting written permission. The cost of running a business will increase dramatically because of the additional recordkeeping. When expenses go up, people lose their jobs.